

Durga Sob

Ms. Durga Sob is a lifelong advocate for the rights of Dalit women. She is a founding member of the Feminist Dalit Organization (FEDO), serving as the President of this organization at present, having the responsibility for coordinating FEDO's programming, activities, policies and networking as well as for organizing and attending various high level meetings, seminars, workshops and event training. She was elected to the IDSN Executive Group in 2010.

Durga Sob is also the past president of the Dalit NGO Federation (DNF), and from 2002 to 2004, held the post of member secretary of the National Dalit Commission. She is heading the national alliance called Inclusive Women Alliance for Justice, Peace and Democracy. Furthermore, she has served on the Board of Directors of the International Movement Against all Forms of Discrimination and Racism- Japan (IMADR), is a member of the National Development Council (government body), and formerly acted as a member of the Adviser Committee of the NGO Federation of Nepal. As part of the National Election Observation Committee she continues to seek respect for Dalit and women's rights—and their full participation—in the context of post-conflict peace-building in Nepal.
