

GENERAL RECOMMENDATION XXIX

GENERAL RECOMMENDATION ON DESCENT-BASED DISCRIMINATION

The Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination,

Recalling the terms of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights according to which all human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights and are entitled to the rights and freedoms therein without distinction of any kind, including 'race, colour, sex, language, religion, social origin, birth or other status';

Recalling also the terms of the Vienna Declaration of the World Conference on Human Rights according to which it is the duty of States, regardless of political, economic and cultural systems, to promote and protect all human rights and fundamental freedoms;

Reaffirming General Recommendation XXVIII of the Committee which expresses wholehearted support for the Declaration and Programme of Action of the Durban World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance;

Reaffirming also the condemnation of discrimination against persons of Asian and African descent, and indigenous and other forms of descent in the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action;

Basing its action on the provisions of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination which seeks to eliminate discrimination based on 'race, colour, descent, or national or ethnic origin';

Confirming the consistent view of the Committee that the term 'descent' in Article 1, paragraph 1 the Convention does not solely refer to 'race' and has a meaning and application which complements the other prohibited grounds of discrimination;

Strongly reaffirming that discrimination based on 'descent' includes discrimination against members of communities based on forms of social stratification such as caste and analogous systems of inherited status which nullify or impair their equal enjoyment of human rights;

Noting that the existence of such discrimination has become evident from the Committee's examination of reports from a number of States Parties to the Convention;

Having organized a thematic discussion on descent-based discrimination and received the contributions of members of the Committee, as well as contributions from some governments and members of other United Nations bodies, notably experts of the Sub-Commission for the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights;

Having also received the contributions of a great number of concerned non-governmental organizations and individuals orally and through written information, providing the Committee with further evidence of the extent and persistence of descent-based discrimination in different regions of the world;

Concluding that fresh efforts, as well as the intensification of existing efforts, need to be made at the level of domestic law and practice to eliminate the scourge of descent-based discrimination and empower communities affected by it;

Commending the efforts of those States which have taken measures to eliminate descent-based discrimination and remedy its consequences;

Strongly Encouraging those affected states who have yet to recognize and address this phenomenon to take steps to do so;

Recalling the positive spirit in which the dialogues between the Committee and governments have been conducted on the question of descent-based discrimination and anticipating further such constructive dialogues;

Attaching the highest importance to its ongoing work in combating all forms of descent-based discrimination;

Strongly condemning descent-based discrimination, such as discrimination on the basis of caste and analogous systems of inherited status, as a violation of the Convention;

The Committee recommends the States Parties, as appropriate for their particular circumstances, to adopt some or all of the following measures:
